

MARTINA LANDHED HAS BEEN NOMINATED AS A FINALIST IN NATIONAL KITCHEN AND BATHROOM AWARDS

Martina Landhed has been nominated as a finalist in the prestigious kbbreview Awards 2013. The national awards are organised by kbbreview, the UK's leading magazine for the kitchen and bathroom industry. Martina been announced as a finalist in the Bathroom Designer of the Year, projects costing up to £10,000 category.

Martina Landhed, Senior Designer, says: "It was a pleasure to transform a very dated, colourful bathroom into a light, contemporary and practical bathroom for the family's teenage children. The challenge was to achieve distinction within a modest budget; this was achieved with a large bespoke shower area with dry and wet seating areas and lights.

"My desire is always to inspire and help customers to realise the potential in their bathrooms. I aim to take their dreams and turn them into reality, whilst offering as personal a service as possible."

Tim Wallace, editor of kbbreview says: "We've had a record-breaking number of entrants to this year's kbbreview Awards. We are also very pleased and excited to have received lots of new entrants this year, which is extremely encouraging. As always the standard of submissions is incredibly high.

"The kbbreview Awards set out to recognise and reward excellence in the kitchen and bathroom industry, and Martina should be very proud of being a finalist. The judging process is rigorous and extensive and judged by renowned industry professionals. We would like to congratulate Martina on being nominated as a finalist and wish her the best of luck for the finals."
